Greetings unto the populace of the mighty Outlands.

Thank you to all who have made our travels so enjoyable this past month. We have had a wonderful time revisiting old friends and making so many new ones at Pennsic, Clann War and Warders of the Western Gate.

However as the summer sun begins to pale to fall, several things now draw our attention. Those whom wish to stake a claim to the stag throne will draw nigh at the Holy Cross Abbey early this month. We hope that many make the journey to witness the contest to decide our heirs. On a more serious note for those who will enter this list, please know that we will demand the highest degree of chivalry and honor from each of you at all times. There may be trying times ahead and our heirs will need to continue with our efforts to insure the best of treaties for this coming Estrella War. If there is any reason a crown entrant feels that they cannot meet this royal command, then please take this opportunity to withdraw and contend in the lists at a future crown tournament. Many people have placed a lot of time and energy into the treaty project and we will by no means allow that to be thrown to the wayside.

Thank you to those whom have always been in service to the dream.

White Stag

I would like to thank Plover Herald and those who assisted him at Crown Tournament for keeping everyone aware of the happenings of the day. I also welcome Baron Carrick as our new Castle Herald for internal submissions - local heralds, please begin sending your submission packets to him, instead of Mistress Francesca.

I would also like to remind everyone that Stagscon is fast approaching - if you are a herald or are interested in heraldry, there will be classes for people of all levels and a consultation table in the afternoon, plus the usual officer meetings in the morning.

The March 2008 LoAR is now available. The full text is available at http://heraldry.sca.org/loar/ and it is notable that the Cover Letter has messages from the outgoing and incoming Laurel, discussion of the definition of saltorels, the tinctures of strawberries proper, and a firm reminder regarding paperwork issues. Please help Castle and Rampart by providing the appropriate documentation for your items; if you have any questions on what is needed, please ask them or me. I would also remind everyone that the proper route for submissions is through your local herald (or closest baronial herald); if that is problematic, please contact me.

Serving Crown and heraldry,

Marie de Blois

Arts & Sciences Minister

Greetings,

We are currently seeking an Estrella War Laurel. Duties will include discussions with other kingdoms on the following years A&S categories, finding judges for the upcoming Estella War A&S Competition and advertising. If you are interested please contact myself or Master Ryan, War Pelican at brunlocr@aol.com.

It is time to start seeking my replacement as Kingdom A&S Officer. I've had a great time as kingdom A&S Officer over the year and have learned much, but unfortunately, my mundane commitments are overwhelming and I feel that I must step aside to allow someone else to provide the services that the Kingdom and A&S community deserves.

The office is going through a major change in its venue, so we are looking for someone that is well organized, has strong leadership, management & communication skills, access to email and internet, some travel is required (Kingdom A&S events, Stag's Con & Coronations) and be able to provide 20-25 hrs a week to the office. If you are interested in this position, please send your letter of intent to Their Royal Majesties, Kingdom Seneschal and myself by September 30th. I will be happy to answer any questions that anyone may have about the office.

Yours in Service,

Mistress Tana a l'Esprit Fort

Archer General

Greetings, My name is THL Angus Montgomery the Forrester, I have been in the SCA for almost 23 years, and I have been an archer for that whole time and have been a fighter for almost 22 of those years. It is my honor to have been allowed to become this Kingdom's 10th Archer General. I am following in the footsteps of some very fine people.

We have a great team of people backing me in my posting as AG, our main, and my drop-dead Deputy AG or TDAG (The Deputy Archer General) is THL Lêofsige Õ Caoimh known as Lyssa. The rest of our team as our new scorekeeper is Lady Constanza Marina de Huelva; our Northern DAG is Lord Tyr vonWolfsberg; our southern DAG for period archery is Baron Ben - Caomh Beathan Crubach; southern DAG for open archery is THL OEngus au Faeláin; our new Crossbow DAG in the south is THL Karl the Piper and rounding our team for thrown weapons is Lord Nikolaous Demetriou ho Toxotes. All the correct contact information can be found at the archery website. http://archery.outla nds.org

Several changes will be forthcoming. We are looking at streamlining the rules, and making them simpler and easer to understand. The website will be undergoing some changes and we are looking at the ability to post scores directly to the site.

Estrella War is just around the corner and we need your help. This year I am announcing a contest. I would like to see the archers come up with their own shoots for this next year's Estrella archery. We need 6 shoots for War, 4 untimed, and 2 timed.

The rules...The shoots need to be something that is:
Easy to make
Easy to transport
Easy to run.
Making them for little or no money is also a bonus.

Now to make it harder, the shoots cannot have or incorporate any portion of a standard 5 color or "period" target. Range length maximum is 100 yards but it is recommended to keep the length to a maximum of 30-35 yards to ensure the greatest number of participants can enjoy the shoots.

We are all very smart and talented, this is a chance for the Outlands to shine, and show all others that we are the best. To help you, last year, of the four un-timed shoots two had a max score of 48 pts, and two had a max score of 42 pts. The two timed shoots had a max score of 48 points. At this time we are looking for the same. Atenveldt has the foam for us to shoot on. We need the targets. They have many 2ft by 3ft target backs. They have a few walls, either 6ft by 6ft, or 6ft by 8ft. We can also build our own and use it but please keep in mind that all items will have to be transported to Atenveldt.

The Ideas must include the rules, list of materials needed to make and pricing estimates, if possible. Picture or drawings, if possible, are greatly encouraged or at worst case a good description of the target. The judges will be me and two other DAGs (to be named later). (Only DAGs that do not send in ideas will be assisting with the judging.)

Prizes...For each shoot I will make a tooled leather pouch. (Only one prize will be given per archer though an archer may have more than one shoot chosen.)

Send Ideas to the Outlands-archery list, for all to see. We can make this great.
We feel that communication is a great way to help promote and encourage older archers and new archers to shoot. With this said we have a yahoo groups list20that is perfect for this can be found at: http://groups.yahoo.com/group/Outlands-archery
My main deputy is THL Lêofsige Õ Caoimh (Lyssa) (Maggie Griggs) and her email is leofsige@yahoo.com if you need to contact her as well.

Kingdom Scribe

Greetings unto the Outlands,

Several changes have occurred in the Scribes College of late. First, Baroness Christina McCarty has retired as our Web Coordinator. I would like to thank her deeply for all her hard work and support over the past several years. Her help has been invaluable and she made things so much easier for me and my predecessors. Second, Baroness Asta has stepped out of the Northern Deputy position. I thank her for her years of service and dedication. I hope you will all join me in thanking them both for all of their hard work on behalf of the scribes, and I know they will continue to be great resources and amazing scribes.

I would also ask that you help me welcome Lady Anora Marchaunt who has agreed to become my new Northern Deputy. She is an amazing scribe and I know she will be a great addition to the office.

I continue to thank the Outlands for all of your support, helping to make the Outlandish Scribes the best in the Known World.

In Service,

I have fielded many questions about demos and it is often the biggest part of my Stagscon classes. I will attempt to answer some questions and clear up some misconceptions about demos. There are three types of demos that are recognized by this office: recruitment, entertainment and educational. Entertainment is really part of the other two.

Technically we are not required to do any demo, even educational ones, but we do because we like teaching and we are proud of our organization. In times were we are suffering from high fuel prices the recruitment demo is being encouraged. Recruitment demos are aimed at adults who are potential members. Education demos are often done for elementary and middle schools. Local renaissance fairs are a touch of all three since all age groups and demographics are met.

Demos are also a opportunity to generate good public relations with a community that is not familiar with the SCA. As with any corporation, there are certain restrictions when dealing with the public. First fighting demos must be well marshaled, and people who are not members of the SCA may not engage in any form of combat other than padded weapons. Second, we want to look and sound our best. What this means is watch your language and dress properly. There is also some common terms we want to avoid when performing a demo. words like "mundane" are insulting and "butt rap, cup shot and boffer" can be misunderstood. Finally, in the case of media presence, only the seneschal has the authority to speak with them. The seneschal may choose someone else to speak if they so choose to delegate.

please see the Demo Policy at http://sca.org/officers/chatelain/demopolicy.html and if you have any questions I will gladly answer any questions at hospitaller@outlands.org

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands

I know that many Arts and Sciences events are planned in the coming months in our Kingdom. Our youth want to take your A&S classes and participate, but they need to know which classes are open to the youth. Please poll your teachers and publicize the classes that are open to the youth and the minimum age for youth wishing to take those classes. Many of our youth have expressed to us that they don't feel comfortable just walking into a class, unless they know they are welcome to take the class.

We encourage parents and guardians to be really involved with their children in the SCA—in their youth activities, classes, martial arts and service. Our preteens and teens often stop being active in the SCA, because they are bored and/or feel they no longer have a place in the SCA—they are too young to fight and too old to do some of the younger activities. Their eagerness to serve and to be involved when they were younger often goes away. They want activities geared more for their age and learning level. You don't need to wait for a youth activities volunteer from your local group to put on activities or opportunities for your youth. Get with other parents or members of your households and create fun and learning SCA activities for the children and your teens. The only society requirement is that if you advertise or announce this activity in any way to the general public and it's obviously for youth or teens, then you must have a minimum of two unrelated adults present at all times during the activity. You can also volunteer to help with the youth activities and your help will be greatly appreciated.

In service to the Outlands,

Cady Jayne Barber

Earl Marshal

Greetings!

ALL authorizing marshals are required to report the following data for each authorization:

Mundane/legal name
SCA name
SCA membership number
Expiration date the membership
Reauthorized until date (as stated in kingdom marshal handbook)
Styles the fighter is authorized for
Names of authorizing marshal and attending knight

This data is going into a kingdom database and this will allow for better tracking of authorization levels, numbers of fighters, and which areas are growing or shrinking. Thank you for the information.

Now a question. Does the thrust of a 9' spear to the shoulder or hip count as a blow from a mass weapon? Is it a killing blow? Please drop me a line and let me know your brief thought (sirdenniswright@comcast.net).

Thanks to one and all.

Sir Dennis the Wright

Rapier Marshall

Greetings, Stag rapier fighters!

There are four rules of rapier fighting: stay safe, stay hydrated, don't be stupid, and have fun! With the potential changes to waterbearing, remember to bring your own hydration (preferably water) to the field. This will help you with the other three rules!

Remember, there are authorizing marshals across this fair Kingdom. If you need a re-authorization or a new authorization, please seek out one of the authorizing marshals, Mistress Rivka (my deputy), or myself. My contact information is included in the OH.

Remember, have fun and stay safe!

YIS,

Don Ulrich. Kingdom Rapier Marshall

Exchequer

Unto these great Outlands, and all to whom these presents may come,
Greetings!

As you know, I have assumed the duties of Kingdom Exchequer. I wish to make special commendation of Her Ladyship Yuki. She took a job which consumed all her energies and effort, willingly and for the love of this game. I wish her well.

A brief biography: I am Maistre Louis-Philippe Mitouard. I have been in the SCA for over 25 years, and have served as both a local officer in many offices and previously as an Outlands kingdom offier. It shall be my great pleasure to use that experience, (if not to regale you with old fart stories) to, with the help of the Exchequerate, help tend to the financial health of your groups.

As my time to compose this article is short, and my ideas are many, I shall simply trouble you with a few of them in no particular order.

First, what I wish from myself as an officer. I believe in openness in financial matters. As a public 501c3 organization, our records and more generally our financial dealings are open to inspection. We have nothing to hide - light is the best disinfectant.

I believe in two-way communication, from my officers and especially to them. I am always available for questions, in person or in email. Although individual communication is fine, I also urge you to if at all possible use the OutlandsExchequers YahooGroup http://groups.yahoo.com/group/OutlandsExchequers/ That way, we can best pool our knowledge. I have tried and will continue to make the newest forms, rules and information available on that site. Whether you are a new or old exchequer, please avail yourself of that resource.

I will be at Stag's Con and plan on a full schedule of classes. However, do not wait until then to contact me if you have questions, or just feel stuck, especially with that nagging rules question or that report which won't balance.

Yours, in service to the Outlands,

Louis.

Readstan Anniversary Pas d'Arms

Date: September 20, 2008
Open 8am – Close 6pm
Sponsored by: Canton of Readstan
Whispering Pines Park 8000 E. Park Dr., Franktown, CO 80116
Lady Meliore Fioravanti (melle@chateauflammel.org) 720-291-1147
Site fees: Adults $6; Children $3; Children 4 and younger Free
$3 Non-member surcharge will apply
Please make checks payable to "SCA Inc. – Readstan"
Site is dry

Invitation: Whereas it is the bound duty of Knights and gentlemen-at-arms to keep their skills honed and ready should His Majesty call them to battle, and whereas the Noble and gentle ladies of the land are desirous to be entertained by the feats of honor, it is the privilege of the Canton of Readstan to invite all those of noble comportment and lineage to test their mettle on the Readstan field of combat celebrating the First Anniversary of the Canton of Readstan.

Background: This is a very formal event, a recreation of a Pas d'Arms. Here, each combatant must employ a personal herald to wear his tabbard and announce his entry in the grand processional. The noble competitor must be in the company of the Lady whose honor he fights for. Mundane parts of armor should be covered. This is as much a tournament as a parade of pomp.

Here is an opportunity to put on an amazing period show. Bring your retinue to line your way with rose petals as you march before the crowd. Show your persona's wealth and importance in a train of men-at-arms and ladies throwing coin (i.e., gold or silver wrapped candy) into the cheering throng to the booming voice of your herald proclaiming your merits and, more importantly, the virtues of your Lady. You are the show and that is as much a part of this event as is the combat. So round up your friends, companions in arms, banner bearers, dancers, drummers (showmanship is a big plus!) and find an excellent Herald and prepare him/her well in advance. If you have ever been "bored at court" this is the place for you to put your theatric foot forward and thrill the onlookers.

Competitions: For the honor of his fair Lady, the combatants may participate in one or all of the three lists including The Barrier (German or Italian style upon the agreement of the fighers), Great Weapon (matching form) and Sword & Shield lists, as well as a Grand Melee to finish the day.

The best and most courteous demeanor is required of all who attend and may win the day with their display of Chivalric manner. There will be a Grand Processional and Helmshau (helm show) to determine whether or not the competitor is noble enough to compete (bring your shiny stuff and show off!).

Duties of the Combatant: To fight for the honor of a Lady, to comport themselves in a chivalrous and honorable manner, to engage the services of a Herald and adorn said Herald in a tabard with their arms, to hide any mundanity upon their person, and to display their best tournament armor and regalia.

Duties of the Ladies: Inspire greatness in he who fights for you and even in the others with your grace and beauty. Attend to the contests so they may collectively determine the most valiant and most chivalrous combatant, and to call to task those who have displeased and to compliment good deeds in the outstanding.

Duties of the Heralds: To speak truly of the great prowess of their employer in the Grand Processional, to assure the combatant is correctly entered into the Lists, and to issue

Greetings, all good gentles, and be of good cheer for the Santa Fe Renaissance Fair's inaugural event is here! Come and join the Shire of Drygestan in representing the Spanish Renaissance to the general public. And get in a Clan Tynker show or two: their troupe has been hired as entertainment for the Fair! Join the Shire of Drygestan in a beef stew meal, cooked by Mistress Helga, on Saturday night, and peruse goods for sale from the SCA merchants in the SCA Village! There will also be merchants and lunch-time food vendors in the main Fair.

Basic Site Rules:

1. No pets are allowed. This is a strict Golondrinas rule.

Please strive to represent the Spanish Renaissance in your dress, camp, and demeanor (the Spanish Renaissance covers the years of 700 to 1600 AD, throughout the Iberian peninsula, including some parts of Arabia).

For those wanting to camp, please RSVP to THLady Maimuna with your tent's footprint.

Turn right on Los Pinos Road (about a half-mile down the frontage road). The museum will be 3.2 miles down the road, on the left-hand side.

The Barony of Dragonsspine invites one and all to their annual A&S Champion Competition, A&S Display, Baroness' Prize and Populace Choice Competition!

Calling all Artisans, Scientists and Brewers! Come and join the Barony of Dragonsspine for a day of Arts and Sciences display and competition. Display your art or science, display your knowledge, and have fun talking and networking with other artisans and scientists. There are four competitions scheduled for the day: Baronial A&S Champion, Baroness' Prize, Populous Choice, and a Novice Competition.

The Baronial A&S Competition is open to all who wish to enter, but the Baronial championship will only be awarded to a Dragonsspinian. This competition will be patterned after the Kingdom A&S rule: you must enter 3 separate entries in 2 separate divisions. Documentation is required, and judging will be based on Kingdom scoring sheets.

Anyone who is interested in competing for Baronial A&S Champion needs to contact Lady Cecilia Wrenne at coloradowench1976@ yahoo.com or by phone at 719-494-3484. Please include your SCA name, mundane name, which category & division your entry is in. If you have special requirements (need large area, electricity, dress forms, etc) please let Lady Cecilia know. All entries for Baronial A&S Champion must be registered with Lady Cecilia no later than September 10, 2008.

If you are entering a research paper, please send it to Cecilia for Champion Competition or to Kiara and Bronwen for all other competitions. All research papers must be sent in at least 2 weeks prior to Baronial A&S. If you have any questions, please contact us.

Minimal Documentation is needed for the Baroness Prize, Populace Choice, and Novice Competitions. The only documentation needed for these competitions is what can fit on a 3" by 5" card (what the piece is, what culture/country it is from, what time period it is from, and who the piece belongs to). Of course, if you have lots of documentation and want to bring it, please do!

The Novice Competition is for anybody who's been doing an art or science for 2 years or less. This is the place to bring out the new things you've been learning how to do, but aren't quite ready for a Baronial or Kingdom Champion competition yet.

And of course, there is also a display. If you wish to not enter any of the competitions, just bring your A&S articles and display them and have fun showing what you are doing, and talking with others who are doing the same as you are!

There will be a brewer's portion of the event!! Please keep in mind you MUST BE 21 or older to participate in the brewing competition or judging. The only alcohol allowed on site is that which is entered in the brewing competition.

Besides the plethora of competitions there will be classes on many different things. We will also have round table discussions hosted by the peers of Dragonsspine on what it means to be a peer and what are peer qualities. We humbly ask that you join us on this day for the beautiful changing of the autumn leaves for a day of fighting, fun, friendship and whimsy!
All who attend are requested to show plenty of fancy and pageantry, don their best clothes and trappings and bring a sense of fun!
On this day we will hold a Heavy Weapons Tourney, a "Passage of Arms" to test the mettle of any who are brave enough to challenge the 7500 ft elevation of the Mountain Pas' and stand with honor before their Peers to meet the challenges set before them and earn the right to be The Champion of the Mountain Pas'!
It is our hope to challenge and inspire our fighters to great feats of skill, honor, pageantry, and remind them that humor and whimsy are also desirable qualities for any noble. There will be pixies and other woodland creatures about who will be watching closely for the best death and other things...and remember we want humor and whimsy.
The Highland games are open to all and will begin directly after lunch. Games will include: Sheep throwing, Rolling pin toss and Bocce Ball just to name a few. If you have a game you would like to bring to add to the fun please feel free to do so.

Come one, Come all to our shire's annual War of the Staked Plains! Our Over-Lord has gotten lazy and cocky. And well he should. After all, he didn't have to fight for his right to claim our shire as his last year. Surly there are those out there who can challenge him. We may be a small shire but we are on the cross roads between two powerful Kingdoms. As of late, most of our "visitors" have been from across the boarder from Ansteorra. Will not our Barony come succor us? Or any other warrior of the Outlands?!

We offer to those who are willing to sacrifice to come to our aid, thrills of battle both heavy and light. Sir Berold will be sponsoring a tourney for those yet unbelted. Lord Blackwood will have scenarios for any rapier fighters who wish to challenge him (he was our champion last year). There will be an A&S competition and, of course, plenty of archery.

The site is primitive but we do have potable water (drank out of the spiget myself). Dogs must be on a leash. And if primitive camping is not to your liking, there are several hotels fairly close.

Directions: From the West (via Hwy 60/84): You will go past Cannon AFB prior to entering the city limits. Once past Cannon AFB, please continue to travel on Hwy 60/84 approximately 8 miles to the intersection of Prince St. and Hwy 60/84. Turn left (North) onto Prince St. and travel approximately 8 miles. You will pass Wal Mart and out of the city limits to County Road 17. You will see the SCA sign on the right, at CR 17. The site is 1.5 miles down CR 17 on the left side.

From the North (Tucumcari): CR17 is the next left after Ned Houlk Park. The SCA sign will be on the left just after the road so, start slowing down after the Ned Houk Park sign. After turning left onto CR 17, the site is 1.5 miles down CR 17 on the left side.

From the South: You will be coming into Clovis via Portales on Hwy 70. Once you enter the city limits, you will need to cross the railroad tracks. Once past the railroad tracks, you will immediately come to Hwy 60/84. Hwy 70 becomes Prince St. once you cross 60/84 and you can continue North on Prince St. and travel approximately 8 miles. You will pass Wal Mart and out of the city limits (approx. 5 miles) to County Road 17. You will see the SCA sign on the right, at CR 17. The site is 1.5 miles down CR 17 on the left side.

From the East via Hwy 60/84 (Farwell, TX): head west to the intersection of 60/84 and Prince St., turn right and head out of town to CR17.
